Coleman Library To Open Sept. 13

On Thursday, September 13th, the Coleman Community Library opens its doors again. As usual, the hours will be from 4 to 8 p.m.

What's really new is the fact that some 60 brand-new books will be there for our juvenile readers, while another 60 are on hand to be added during the following weeks.

These additions represent an exciting variety calculated to satisfy every taste. Too many and varied for individual mention, they range from volumes in the Great Stories of Canada series, through books with intriguing titles like: Men of Other Planets, He Sailed With Blackbeard, Rain Cloud the Wild Mustang, Love and Salt Water, The Siege of Aust Eustle, Three for Treasure, and A Wrinkle in Time, to the complete set of Winnie-the-Pooh books.

With all this enrichment of the juvenile department, the adult section hasn't been overlooked either. According to popular demand, the emphasis there has been on mystery and suspense, and several such books will adorn the "New Books" shelves.

Come and browse on Thursdays from 4 to 8 p.m.

Geo. E. Cruickshank, former Pass MLA, buried at Calgary

A man who was active in fraternal, athletic and the political life of the province in the 1920's and 1930's died suddenly Thursday morning, August 30th.

George Edward Cruickshank, 85, died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. R. B. Burgman in Blairmore.

Born March 12, 1877, in Java, Ont., he came west to Frank in 1905, where he was employed in the dry goods business.

In 1909 he moved to Hillcrest where he formed general merchants business partnership with Thomas Burnett. Later he opened his own business. He retired in 1947.

Mr. Cruickshank was a 32nd degree Mason, joining Sentinel Lodge, Hillcrest, No. 26, in 1911. He became Worshipful Master in 1914, District Deputy Grand Master in 1919 and in 1927 was elected Grand Master of Alberta.

He was a life member in Hillcrest Sentinel and honorary life member in Rocky Mountain Lodge No. 86, Blairmore. He was also a member of the Hillcrest United Church.

Mr. Cruickshank served for two years, 1928-30 as president of the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association. In 1925 was governor for the Alberta branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

He served for two terms in the Alberta legislature as an independent MLA for the Crows Nest Pass area prior to the formation of the Social Credit government in 1935.

Survivors include a son Robert, high school principal at Lacombe, one daughter, Mrs. R. B. (Jean) Burgman and six grandchildren. His wife predeceased him in 1948.

Frank Fire Destroys Dwelling

On August 27th volunteer fire-fighters aided by two Forestry Service employees, prevented a home fire from spreading to surrounding brush.

They were, however, unable to extinguish the blaze which completely destroyed the 14 by 20 ft. one room dwelling.

The house, located across from the Turtle Mountain Hotel, was only partially furnished and had not been occupied for a number of years. It is believed that local children, using it as a play area, are responsible for starting the blaze.

Even though the Frank Fire Department was on the scene in reasonably short time, it was unable to supply the necessary water because of a family pump.

It was with the Forestry Service equipment, manned by Mr. Girardi and Mr. Dean, that kept the brush fire under control.

Twenty Small Forest Fires Reported in Pass This Summer

No smoke clouds have darkened the Pass skies this summer, the sun has not set in the west resembling a ball of fire, nor has there been hurried conscription of man-power on the street for fire-fighting, but despite the lack of visible signs of forest fires, up to 20 fires have been reported and attended to at the headquarters of Crows Nest Forest at Blairmore.

Only vigilant, round-the-clock watches by lookout men, prompt action for forestry crews, plus a helping hand from the weatherman in the way of a cool summer and opportune rains, have prevented these many small fires from becoming major conflagrations.

Most of the fires reported occurred in the Coleman district of the Crows Nest Forest adjacent to the towns of Coleman and Blairmore and the village of Bellevue, Hillcrest and Frank.

Seven fire outbreaks were attributed to lightning strikes, six during the last weeks of July when the fire hazard ranged from high to extreme. One strike in July was not detected until two weeks later when the fire broke out in the open after smouldering in the underbrush.

Four fires in the Coleman district were blamed on children—two at Coleman near the ranger station, one south of Hillcrest, and one in an abandoned house at the sulphur springs at Frank. In this latter fire the Frank Volunteer Fire Brigade co-operated with the forestry crew in putting out the blaze before it became a threat to nearby trees.

A logging truck caught fire and burned on a road in the Porcupine Hills district, but a close watch was kept to prevent the fire from spreading to the adjacent forest. A July fire at Racehorse Creek in the Gap district, was traced to a smoker who, a few days ago, was prosecuted for his carelessness in court at Blairmore.

Another fire in the Gap district at Window Mountain Lake was put out by an alert fisherman before it assumed threatening proportions.

The biggest blaze of the season, approximately two acres in size, broke out on August 16th at Mill Creek in the Castle River district in the vicinity of a logging camp.

Twenty-nine men, including forestry men, ranchers and prisoners from a nearby maximum security camp soon had the fire under control, which was believed to have started from sparks from a chimney at the lumber camp.

With the fire outbreak being reported on April 23, it has been a long fire season, but forestry officials are optimistic that recent heavy rains will keep the heavy undergrowth, that has flourished during the cool summer, damp until the winter snows arrive to end the fire hazard for this year.

Logging and sawmill operations in the Crows Nest Forest, which are supervised by the forestry service, have had a good season.

Late in starting operations due to belated spring break-up, little time has been lost since due to inclement weather or fire hazard conditions.

Efforts are always being made by the Forestry Service to improve camping and picnicking facilities in the area and to this end such a project was completed this summer at Allison Creek dam, about six miles northwest of Coleman. Facilities here include a shelter, camp stoves and recreation grounds.

The adjacent creek is also stocked with fish. This camp ground has proved so popular with families, fishermen and larger groups that the Forestry is planning an increase in the conveniences.

Very little vandalism has been apparent in the shelters provided by the Forestry, the worst being the peeling of bark from trees surrounding the shelters by children, which will mean the ultimate death of the tree.

Other projects in the Crows Nest Forest include the building of a new ranger station, 30 miles north of Lundre on the Happy Valley road and nine miles from the present ranger station.

The new station will provide new facilities and give better access to the northern part of the district.

A new road is being completed from the Beaver Mines gate to the Castle River ranger station by Trail Construction of Pincher Creek. The new road is of all weather construction and will provide winter access to the station.

A 16-member group of minimum security prisoners from Lethbridge Provincial gaol are camped at Lynx Creek, 17 miles south of Coleman. These men are doing good work cleaning up roads and rights-of-way in the forest as they complete their terms before returning to freedom.

SCHOOL -- 25 Miles Per Hour

Motorists who may have, during the past two months, become accustomed to ignoring the 25-mile-per-hour signs on streets and highways adjacent to schools, are reminded that as of now those signs take on a very definite meaning.

It is timely to point out that more than the usual care should be exercised during these first few weeks of the new school year.

Kiddies who have enjoyed complete freedom during the summer vacation are apt to be less cautious while going to and from the school. Then too, there is that very important group of Grade One kiddies who are attending school for the first time.

Not only are they unaccustomed to being on the streets alone, but because of the excitement and importance which goes with this new phase of their lives, they are apt to be so pre-occupied with their own thoughts, that they entirely overlook the caution that they would otherwise observe.

Motorists behind the wheels of their vehicles should keep this in mind at all times. Be sure to slow down to 25 miles per hour or less and be on the lookout constantly for children darting out from the side of the street directly in front of your car.

The appointment of John Ferguson, 32, to the post of administrative officer for the Calgary office of the Department of Industry and Development has been announced by the Hon. A. R. Patrick, Minister of Industry and Development and Provincial Secretary.

He will succeed Lewis D. Robinson, recently named to direct the newly opened Los Angeles office. Mr. Ferguson's duties will include the promotion of industrial development and the encouragement of tourism in the southern area of the province. In addition he will work in close co-operation with other government departments in the Calgary district.

Born in Saskatchewan in 1909, Mr. Ferguson was educated at schools in Canada and the United States. Prior to joining the Alberta public service he was manager of a British Columbia radio station. With the 1948 establishment of Alberta House, Mr. Ferguson was appointed Immigration Officer at Edmonton to assist Britons immigrating to Alberta.

Later named Employment Liaison Officer with the Department of Industry and Labor, Mr. Ferguson was responsible for the administration of the coal miners' rehabilitation program.

At the time of his appointment, Mr. Ferguson had completed a two year study on Alberta small businesses for use in industrial promotion. During the course of the report he visited many Alberta communities meeting with local officials and businessmen. The results of the survey are to be made available to prospective investors when final compilation has been completed.

Issues Appeal To Hunters

Ben Rosnau, of Bruderheim, Alberta, president of the Alberta Fish and Game Association, has issued an appeal to all hunters to be careful with fire this fall while out hunting. Mr. Rosnau in a statement issued to the press, says:

"On behalf of the Alberta Fish and Game Association, I appeal to hunters to do all in their power to eliminate the danger of fire in our forests and on the prairies during the upcoming hunting season. We in Alberta were fortunate this summer in that sufficient rain fell to lower the fire hazard; however, normal fall weather will see dry periods and a resultant increased fire hazard.

"Fires due to natural causes are tragic enough, but more tragic are those which are due to human carelessness. Good sportsmen handle fire with respect and I urge all hunters to do their part in preventing fires. Forests which have taken hundreds of years to grow may be destroyed in a few days as the result of a single careless act, taking with it a heavy toll in habitat, without which our fish and wildlife cannot exist."

Mr. Rosnau also cautions hunters seeking antelope in the south-eastern prairie region to be careful with their campfires and while smoking. Prairie fires usually run for miles before they can be effectively stopped.

12 Rules For Rearing a Crook

Chesterfield, Eng. (ap) — The Archdeacon of Chesterfield has given his Church of England parishioners a handy guide on "how to turn your child into a crook".

Drawing a bead on indulgent parents, Ven. Talbot Dilworth-Harrison listed these 12 "rules" in his parish magazine

1. Begin from infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe that the world owes him a living.

2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. It will encourage him to pick up "cuter phrases" that will blow the top of your head off later.

3. Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21, then let him decide for himself.

AVOID 'WRONG'

4. Avoid the use of the word wrong. It may develop a guilt complex. This will condition him to believe later when he is arrested for stealing a car that society is against him and he is being persecuted.

5. Pick up everything he leaves lying around — books, shoes and clothes. Do everything for him so he will be experienced in throwing the responsibility on to others.

6. Let him read any printed matter he can get his hands on. Be careful the silverware and drinking glasses are sterilized but let his mind feed on garbage.

7. Quarrel frequently in the presence of the children. Then they won't be too shocked when the home is broken up.

'BE GENEROUS'

8. Give the child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as tough as you had them?

9. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. See that every desire is gratified. Denial may lead to harmful frustration.

10. Take his part against the neighbors, teachers and policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.

11. When he gets into real trouble apologize for yourself by saying, "I never could do anything with him".

12. Prepare for a life of grief—"You will have it".

St. Cyril's Roman Catholic Church, Bellevue, was the scene of a lovely wedding at 11:30 a.m., Saturday, July 28th, when Rev. Father Henke united in marriage Miss Janice Sefcik of Bellevue and Mr. Vernon Groszko of Coleman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sefcik of Bellevue and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Groszko of Coleman.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was radiant in a full-length gown of white satin with lily-point sleeves, scalloped neckline and a train featuring up-lique lace flowers. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion net mistle from a tiara encrusted with seed pearls and aurora borealis beads, and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

The groom's gift to the bride was a dainty filigree brooch of yellow gold with cultured pearls and nine spinels.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Douglas Grant of Calgary, matron of honor; Miss Lorraine Mottle of Calgary and Miss Margaret Dugall of Bellevue who wore lined short-sleeved gowns of organza over taffeta in yellow, aqua and lilac. Their bouquets were white carnations and streamers matching the colors of their dresses.

Flower girl Lois Gatto of Bellevue, cousin of the bride, wore a waltz-length white gown of organa over taffeta and carried a bouquet of white carnations with white streamers. Ring-bearer was Master Nicky Doubinin of Port Hardy, B.C., nephew of the groom. Best man was Mr. Raymond Corne of Calgary, and guests were ushered by Mr. Robert France of Coleman and Mr. Kenneth Sefcik of Bellevue.

Mrs. Marie Youngberg of Hillcrest, presided at the organ and the Misses Margaret and Mary Grigel of Bellevue were soloists.

Following the ceremony over 100 guests assembled in the Bellevue Catholic Hall to honor the happy couple at a supper which was followed by a dance.

The bride's table was centered by a four-tiered wedding cake, decorated with roses and lily of the valley. Father Henke proposed the toast to the bride with the groom responding. Mr. Raymond Corne proposed the toast to the bridesmaids.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sefcik chose a mint green lace dress with white accessories and wore a pink carnation.

For travelling to U.S.A. points the bride wore a yellow knitted suit with a corsage of pink carnations. The young couple will take up residence in Calgary.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Calgary, Medicine Hat, Edmonton, Waterton Lakes, Coleman, Blairmore, Hillspring, Alberta, and Port Hardy, B.C.

Double Ring Wedding Solemnized

The Holy Ghost Catholic Church in Coleman was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday, August 4th, when Patricia Ann, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Moore of Coleman, exchanged wedding vows with Mr. Joseph Andrew Kovalik, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kovalik of Three Hills, Alberta. Rev. Father Fleming officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a semi-formal gown of white organza, trimmed with lace and seeded pearls and sequins on the bodice and skirt of the gown. A matching head-piece held her chapel-length veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Maid of honor, Mrs. Mary Vicon of Edmonton, sister of the groom, wore a rose sheath dress with a matching picture hat and carried a Colonial bouquet of carnations.

Steve Kovalik, brother of the groom, was best man. Organist was Miss Connie Marconi, who also sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother" during the signing of the register.

A reception for the immediate families was held at the home of the bride's parents—the table was beautifully decorated with flowers and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. "Grace" was said by Rev. Father Fleming. Toast to the bride was also given by Rev. Father Fleming with the groom responding.

Open house was held in the evening.

For travelling to Edmonton and other Alberta points the bride wore a three-piece knitted blue suit with white accessories complementing her ensemble by a corsage of roses.

On their return they will reside in Coleman where the groom is employed.

Letter of Interest From Mrs. A. Easton

Following is a letter of interest received from Mrs. A. Easton, who has just returned from a tour of Europe:

Sept. 9, 1962.

The Editor,
 The Coleman Journal,
 Coleman, Alberta
 Dear Editor:

I have just returned from a tour of Europe. All the ladies on this tour were from Western Canada. The arrangements for it were made in Alberta, but the tour itself started in Paris, France on Bastille Day, July 14th.

The city was beautifully decorated with the tri-color, being seen everywhere. The parade was mostly military this year, with President de Gaulle in the reviewing stand. The day's sightseeing included "The Louvre", Notre Dame Arch de Triomphe, Eiffel Tower, Napoleon's Tomb, Montmartre and many other places of interest.

An evening tour of Paris to see it all illuminated also to see the Bastille festivities such as dancing on the "East Bank" in the open air, and the huge fireworks display.

From Paris we proceeded along the French Riviera, via Cannes to Nice, where we stayed two days. We went to Monte Carlo and visited the famous Casino and also Prince Rainier's Castle, where we were met by a guide who showed us through all but the private apartments of the prince and princess and family.

Leaving there we crossed the Italian border and continued on to Genoa, largest Italian port and birth-place of Columbus.

Then on to Pisa to see the leaning tower of Pisa. We also visited Rome and went through the interior of St. Peter's, Vatican Museums, Coliseum, Roman Forum and the Catacombs and many other places of interest.

In Rome I also had a very frightening experience. I was in the elevator all alone when it got stuck between the upper floors of the Claridge Hotel where I was staying. The power had failed and I was in complete darkness until an electrician was called and restored it to action again. In all I was about 30 minutes immobile, but it seemed like that many hours.

In Italy we also went to Florence and Venice, where we had a gondola ride, complete with serenade singers. Leaving Venice we journeyed to Milan, the commercial centre of Italy. Then on to Chiasso where we crossed the Swiss border, where we stayed on for several days in Lugano, Lucerne and Geneva, where sightseeing included the palace of the League of Nations. We crossed the German border at Basle, where we stopped at Freiburg and then on to Heidelberg, the romantic university town on the Neckar River. We also visited Bonn, the capital of Western Germany. One of our most thrilling moments was when we were riding on the famous "Autobahn" we sighted a Canadian Air Force jet plane overhead. Needless to say we gave them a lusty cheer.

At one time we were just about 50 to 60 miles away from the Iron Curtain, namely Yugoslavia.

We left Germany and crossed the border into Holland and to Arnhem, scene of the great battle of World War II, and visited the war memorial of interest to Canadians as hundreds of our soldiers lay buried in the cemetery nearby which we also visited and found the graves well kept with beautiful flowers everywhere. We all signed the guest book kept in a cabinet at the stone arch gate for that purpose.

Next we drove to Amsterdam, capital of Holland. Here I left the tour and proceeded to Belgium—which was not on the itinerary of the tour—to visit at the grave of my late brother, Pte. John P. Gregory, killed in the Second Battle of Ypres in the First World War. The cemetery is located near the town of Ypres. I also found it wonderfully kept with the grass mowed and beautiful flowers in bloom. I also went to France to see the Vimy Memorial, erected to honor Canada's dead in the First World War.

Thousands of names were engraved on the Memorial, including my brother's. From here I journeyed back to England and Scotland where I toured each of these countries. Altogether I visited the following countries:—France, Italy, Vatican City, Monte Carlo, Germany, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, Scotland and England. I left Liverpool on the "Corinthia" to return to Canada. The passage was very rough. Many people were sea-sick including myself. The Corinthia was 12 hours late getting into Montreal, owing to the rough seas—Otherwise the European tour was a very pleasant journey indeed.

I remain a constant reader of The Journal.

Bag, Possession Limits Down For Migratory Birds

Details of the 1962 Migratory Bird Regulations released today by the Canadian Wildlife Service, Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources, reflect the continued decline of duck production. Bag and possession limits in Alberta have been reduced as they have been in the other Prairie Provinces.

The numbers of canvasback and redhead ducks are dangerously low, and there will be no open season this year for these two species. Even under ideal conditions it would take some years for canvasbacks and redheads to reach an adequate breeding population. Hunters are therefore being urged through newspapers, radio and television to be particularly careful not to shoot these species.

The Canadian Wildlife Service, with the co-operation of provincial game departments, is providing hunting licence vendors with identification pamphlets on canvasbacks and redheads.

The bag and possession limits for ducks are 4 and 8, with the same limits applying to geese except for white-fronts. The limits for that species are 3 and 6. The bag and possession limits for snipe are unchanged at 8 and 16.

Anyone who has a permit to keep migratory birds must allow his birds to come within one-quarter of a mile of any waterfowl hunting area. If migratory birds held under permit are found within that limit, it is assumed, under the law, that they are being used as live decoys.

Baiting regulations have been changed across Canada and it is now permissible to hunt within one-quarter of a mile of an area which has been baited, whereas previously the limit was one-half
